

Yichen Wang

Research School of Computer Science
The Australian National University
Canberra, ACT 0200, Australia

yichen.wang@anu.edu.au
M: +61 (0) 420431207

Biography

I'm currently a postgraduate student in Research School of Computer Science, ANU. My research interests include: creative arts in Augmented Reality technology, Software Engineering(e.g. Design Pattern) and the interdisciplinary study between computer science, philosophy and arts.

Education

The Australian National University
M.C.S.(Advanced), 2019 - Current.

The Australian National University
B.I.T., 2017-2019.

Beijing University of Technology
B.Eng., Automation, 2015-2017.

Distinct honours, Awards and Accomplishments

CECS Student Development Grant, ANU
Canberra, Australia, 2018

Research Scholar in Polytechnique Montréal, Canada
Montréal, Canada, 2018

Nicolas Baudin Travel Grant
Hosted by Embassy of France in Australia,
Canberra, Australia, 2018

Experience

Teaching Assistant, The Australian National University
Art and Interaction in New Media, 2019 - 2020
Software Engineering, 2018
Programming as Problem Solving, 2018-2019

Publication

Martin, C. P., Liu, Z., Wang, Y., He, W., & Gardner, H. (2020).
Sonic Sculpture: Activating Engagement with Head-Mounted
Augmented Reality
(pdf, video presentation)

Presentation

Sonic Sculptural Staircase in Augmented Reality, Nov. 2020
Methodologies of Sonic Thinking, the Czech Academy of Sciences
Institute of Philosophy, conducted via Zoom
(website, video presentation)